Dear Friends:

Check#00001095 01/09/2014

Your generosity makes a difference! On behalf of the Campanile Foundation and San Diego State University, thank you for your gift.

Philanthropy is critical to our success. It allows us to make strategic investments in people and programs, building on existing excellence. We are proud that San Diego State is the largest university in San Diego and the only in California to have realized double-digit percentage increases in graduation rates over the last decade. Our momentum is guided by a new strategic plan which focuses on three priorities: 1) fostering student success, 2) advancing research and creative endeavors and 3) expanding our role as a center of community life and engagement. This culture of excellence is made possible by generous individuals like you.

For more highlights about the university, be sure to read the current issue of 360: The Magazine of San Diego State University at newscenter.sdsu.edu/360. Again, thank you for your loyal support.

Sincerely,

Sarah J. Slaughter
